

Job Description

Job Title: Registered Hearing Aid Dispenser /Audiologist

Area of Responsibility

Reporting to the Managing Director this role encompasses responsibility for audiological assessments, dispensing hearing instruments and aural care. To deliver best practise Audiological and aural-care service with the highest standard of clinical care, in line with the company vision and ethos. To develop, deliver and promote strategies within the practice to increase efficiency and performance. To offer the best clinical and technical advice and care for patients on an individual holistic basis.

The duties include fitting hearing aids, providing advice and counselling, servicing and repairing hearing instruments for the clients and organising follow-up and review appointments to assess clients' progress.

Fields of Responsibility

- Dispensing of hearing instruments and provision of audiological consultative services to existing and new patients.
- To service and repair hearing instruments.
- To maintain and monitor repair room stock
- To remove ear wax in a safe and professional manner, or to work towards this after proper training at an approved centre.
- To promote the Practice and work towards achieving sales targets as set from time to time.
- To keep abreast of technological developments in the audiological industry so ensuring that the Centre's high standards and ethos are never comprised. Ensure CPD is up to date.
- To be responsible for cleanliness and professional presentation of own consulting room and personal appearance.
- Ad hoc work as and when required